Dear Mr. MacNeish:

Dr. Cole has suggested that I write asking you if you have any better address for us to use in sending you your check than General Delivery, Brownsville, Texas. We dislike to take any chance that this amount of money would not reach you and would come back to us through the Comptroller's Office.

We will be glad to have your suggestions and will follow your instructions. We hope that everything is going fine with you.

Sincerely yours,

Kathleen Woodman

Dear Dr. MacNeish:

This is to confirm our letter of February 11, concerning publication of results of your recent excavations, from which we quote: "The Viking Fund has no objections as to the releasing of the news of your discoveries to newspapers and magazines of your choice and on your responsibility. We would, of course, consider it a courtesy if the Viking Fund's role regarding the expedition were to find mention."

In conformity with the Fund's policy to rely upon the integrity and scientific ability of its grantees, and not to impose cramping limitations and conditions, you are free to dispose of your findings in any form or through any channels which you deem proper. Naturally, the Fund has no desire for publication of news or articles which in your opinion might be premature.

Sincerely yours,

Beate R. Salz.
